IN SHORT

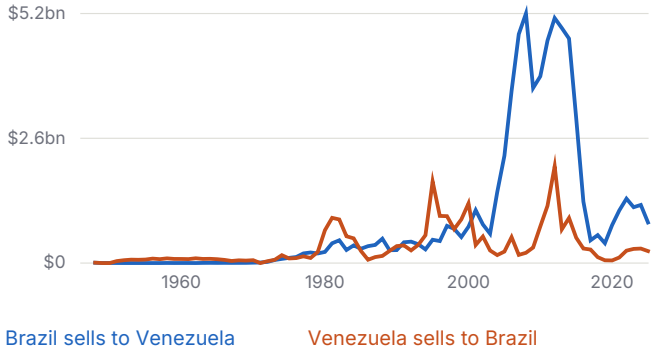

- Trade in goods ($1.3 billion a year) is important for Venezuela, much less so for Brazil.
- In its UN General Debate speeches, Venezuela names Brazil more often than the reverse (38 sentences against 24).
- 572,000 people born in Venezuela live in Brazil (UN DESA counts place of birth, however long ago they moved). A separate count, by UNHCR: 183,000 refugees and asylum seekers from Venezuela in Brazil; the two counts measure different things and are not added up.

VOTES TOPIC BY TOPIC (SINCE 2010)

Bar: since 2010. Mark: all years. Share of roll-call votes on whole texts cast the same way, counted vote by vote; an abstention against a yes counts as a difference. Disarmament, colonialism and economic development count votes up to 2018.

HOW SURE WE ARE

UN votes	None	No shared UN votes are on record for the years the headline covers. One of the two did not vote in them: an observer state, a country not yet a member, or a member that could not vote.
Trade	High	Goods trade is reported in 3 of the 3 years 2023–2025. Goods only, from customs data (IMF); services and energy pipelines are not in it.
Security	High	The Uppsala Conflict Data Program covers every state up to 2025. It counts only conflicts with at least 25 battle deaths a year.
Shared clubs	High	The list of tracked groups is fixed; membership is checked by hand.
Index	None	No index is shown: it needs both a votes score and a trade score.
