IN SHORT

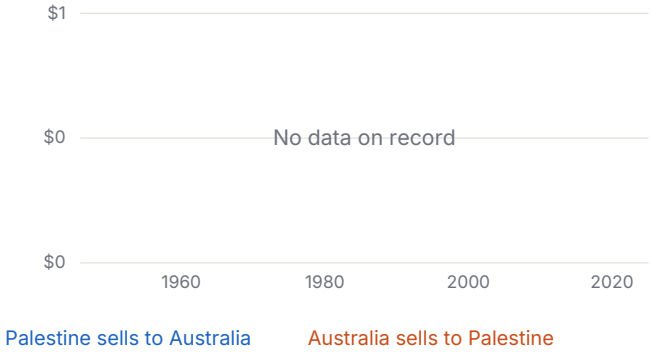

- Palestine is a UN non-member observer State and cannot vote in the General Assembly, so the two have no shared votes.
- Since 1998, when Palestine first spoke in the General Debate, Palestine has named Australia in 1 sentences and Australia has named Palestine in 21.
- 3,000 people born in Palestine live in Australia (UN DESA counts place of birth, however long ago they moved). A separate count, by UNHCR: 2,600 refugees and asylum seekers from Palestine in Australia; the two counts measure different things and are not added up.

THE FACTS

Words	Since 1998, when Palestine first spoke in the General Debate, Palestine has named Australia in 1 sentences and Australia has named Palestine in 21.
Security	No armed conflict between the two governments is recorded since 1946 (UCDP, data to 2025).
People	3,000 people born in Palestine live in Australia (2024, UN DESA).
People	Their national football teams have met 3 times.

HOW SURE WE ARE

UN votes	None	No shared UN votes are on record for the years the headline covers. One of the two did not vote in them: an observer state, a country not yet a member, or a member that could not vote.
Trade	None	There is no trade series for one of the two, so there is no trade score.
Security	None	Not computable: one of the two is a UN non-member observer State, and UCDP's data records wars between states only.
Shared clubs	High	The list of tracked groups is fixed; membership is checked by hand.

Index	None	No index is shown: it needs both a votes score and a trade score.
